Political Students See DOUBLE MILEAGE Victory for Russell in First Round of Fight for Senate in 1936.

By L. A. FARRELL.

Governor Eugene Talmadge was given the first major setback of his political career Friday when the sen ate, despite his effort at withdrawal of nominations made by his predeces sor, voted to confirm recess appointments of former Governor Richard B. Russell Jr.

Students of Georgia's political trend saw in the confirmations a victory for the Russell group, still powerful in state politics, though the former governor now sits in Washington as the state's junior United States senator. They also saw victory for Russell' in the first round of what appears to be the preliminary to a long battle for the senatorship which it appears will be climaxed in the primary in 1936.

Although the Talmadge forces scoffed at the idea that the bitter confirmation battle was anything but a disagreement over the construction of the constitutional amendment providing for an organization meeting of the assembly immediately after the inaugural of a new governor, factionalism settled the issue. From what started out to be just what the Talmadge group claimed, it developed into a gruelling bit of political maneuvering by both sides.

McWhorter Overridden.

The Talmadge forces met defeat in the senate when that body voted, 34 to 14, to override President Hamilton McWhorter's ruling sustaining a point of order which held that no nominations, which ultimately were confirmed, was illegal.

Long and Cohorts Ignore Agreement Limiting Debate in Determination To Stifle Glass Measure.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 .- (AP)-The senate thought it had crippled Huey Long's filibuster against the Glass bank, but tonight the opponents of the measure were as strongly entrenched and determined as ever. For Thomas, of Oklahoma, an ally of the self-styled Louisiana kingfish, let it be known that he would use every means at his command to prevent a vote on the bill. Only cloture the banker. Story in Page 2. can stop him, he said. Untamed by last night's talk with President-elect Roosevelt, Long today renewed his fight against the bill and is continued revolt against his par ty's leadership in the senate. He tried to gain time at the close of the day by asking that the senate recess until Monday, omitting tomorow's session. He appealed for the row's session. He appealed for the week-end holiday on the ground that "seven or eight senators have gone to Muscle Shoals" with Mr. Roosevelt, and that he thought they should be in the senate for the debate.

Nothing to Miss.

"I don't think they'll miss anything tomorrow," Senator Glass, democrat, Virginia, author of the bill in dispute, grimly retorted. A recess was taken until tomorrow noon. And Glass announced he would insist on night sessions next week in an effort to

Talmadge's Advice Saves Negro a Fine

AUGUSTA, Jan. 20.—(P)— Judge Gordon W. Chambers, in city court, today ruled that Governor Talmadge's advice to refrain nor Talmadge's advice to refrain from buying automobile license tags until the legislature acted on his $3 tag tax proposal prevented prosecution of citizens who followed such advice.

The ruling was made in the case of a negro charged with driving an automobile without a license. "Misadvice automobile without a license. "Mister Talmadge." said the defendant, "says we don't have to get licenses

The judge agreed, said such advice orevented prosecution, and an-ounced he would warn state license inspectors that all such cases would thrown out of court until the legislature acts on the governor's

The senate debated the issue at length Wednesday and on Thursday the governor sent it a seco I communication, this time changing his request to a withdrawal of the nominations. This time he also attached the ruling of the attorney-general and the department of law.

The formal withdrawal precipitated the real battle, which was climaxed in the defeat of the governor's effort Friday afternoon.

The nominations confirmed Friday were:

Arthur Lucas, of Atlanta, and W. B. Gibbs, of Brunswick, as members of the state board of control; W. E. Dunwody Jr., of Macon, and Judge E. S. South Carolina Tax

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 .- (AP)-WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(17)
The Broad River Power Company and the Lexington Water Power Company, of Columbia, S. C., today challenged in the supreme court the validity of the South Carolina franchise imposed on electric power gen-regarded by them.

George M. Lepine, counsel for the companies, contended the tax was an illegal discrimination in that certain industrial plants were not required to pay it on power sold by them. The state was also discriminating, he argued, in failing to impose such a tax on power generated by internal combustion engines.

He contended the Lexington com pany was operating under a license from the federal power commission and was an agent of the federal government exempt from state taxes on Mayor Jennings, of Augusta, Opens Drive for Exemption Measure.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Jan. 20 .- (AP)-Mayor W. D. Jennings today said he for more than 30 years, said Mrs. had started a statewide movement to support a bill in legislature designed to eliminate state gasoline and automobile tax payments by municipalities and other political subdivisions.

Roosevelt had written him that her family will return to that congregation, thus renewing a connection which lasted from 1913 to 1920 while her husband was assistant secretary and other political subdivisions.

Mayor Jennings said he had reeived promises from mayors of Saannah, Atlanta, Columbus and Maon that they would support the measure.

Figures presented by the mayor showed that Augusta pays $663.25 annually for auto tags and more than $5,000 a year in gasoline taxes, and that the board of health pays about $1,200.

Mayor Jennings said that "it is my belief that the state should according to the same conviction to manifestical the same conviction to municipalities.

Macon Youth Must Die for Assault; Padgett's Life Sentence Upheld.

The death sentence of Charles Haden, Macon youth charged with assault on a woman, and the life sentence of Home Padgett, of Valdosta, one of several defendants charged with the murder of Mrs. Hettie Browning, were affirmed Friday by the state supreme court.

In the Haden case, the supreme court upheld the legality of the defendant's indictment at a special term of the Bibb grand jury. Evidence in the trial showed that Haden and another man stopped a car in which J. H. Spratling Jr. was riding with a young woman. FAKE 25-CENT PIECE PASSED IN CITY JAIL LANDS MAN IN TOILS bottom of the depression has been reached. Twenty-five cent pieces are now selling for 70 cents per canful—that is, if they are counterfeit. This was brought out Friday before United States Commissioner E. S. Griffith by Marshall Land, 21-year-old white man, who was arraigned by federal authorities after he passed bogus quarters while a prisoner at police leadquarters.

Land told the commissioner that he lives near Cumming, that he came here from Oakland, Cal., and that after pawning a suit of clothes he met a young man back of the city auditorium who offered him a small canful of counterfeit quarters, almost 100 in the lot, for 70 cents.

Land bought them, he said, and then proceeded to pass them in a number of places and offered to sell some at another, he said. However, the law came along Thursday night and locked him up on a charge of being drunk. The coins in the can were overlooked when he was searched, but an investhen he was searched, but an inves-

The investigation landed him before the federal authorities and he was ordered held for the grand jury under $2,000 bond. According to the federal men, the counterfeit quarters are excellent imitations. excellent imitations.

DR. WILLIAMS BACKED BY BOARD OF DEACONS

Deploring the opposition "which would hinder a great work of Christianity," the board of deacons of Wesley Memorial church made public Friday a resolution indorsing and commending the pastor, the Rev. If your favorite antiseptic purports to be more "powerful" than other autisep-tics, it must inevitably retard healing more than does the other. In most instances the popular re-sort to antiseptic remedies is harm-less enough, I fancy, though there can be no question that the healing of some minor wounds and burns is definitely delayed by the unwise ap-plication of such remedies. There plication of such remedies. There may be good science and good sense in the first aid application of an antiseptic to a wound or burn, but there is neither in the common practice of applying such remedies day after day and week after week. Theoretically the use of a non-irritating and non-poisonous antiseptic gargle, mouthwash or spray might protect a person from infection if immediately after exposure, but it is plumb silly to continue the use of such a remedy after the flu, grip, diphtheria, or other illness has developed. The germs causing the illness are in the tissues far beyond the reach of any germicide or antiseptic. The only benefits conferred by the mouthwash, gargle or spray after the illness develops are the comfort the remedy gives the patient and the momentary disinfection of the nose or throat discharges—this being a benefit to those who come within the patient's spray range (cough, sneeze or conversational spray range). CARTERSVILLE, Ga., Jan. 20.

Sproull Fouche, commercial attache at the American legation at Bucharest, Rumania, spent a short time here this week, looking after his farming interests. He was summoned to Washington for a conference, and made the trip to his Bartow county farm between the meetings in Washington.

Bucharest is estimated to be 8,000 miles from Cartersville, and to reach here Mr. Fouche had to travel the equal of one-third the distance around the earth. He landed in New York January 6, and plans to sail on his return voyage next Wednesday, the 25th. He and Mrs. Fouche have been in Bucharest for the past ten years, and during that time have enjoyed fine opportunities to know Queen Marie and other members of the royal family, as well as leading statesmen of Rumania and other Balkan countries.

Referring to the transportation question, he said that the issue raised between the railroads and truck operators had drawn "a tremendous lobby around the capitol." He declared that the railroads must reduce freight rates to the point where the farmer could realize a profit on his produce before they could expect to compete successfully with another form of cheaper transportation.

In reference to his advocacy of a $3 automobile license tag, Governor Talmadge voiced the hope that this bill would soon pass the legislature but added that "if anyone wants to pay $20 for a license tag in the meantime it won't be against the law."

When he put the soup down and took his thumb out of it he asked, "What sort of ball club do you think the Crackers

Now that is the type question which one in the trade has asked him all spring and maybe part of the winter. And so one gets up a type answer which runs something like this: "Oh, I feel sure they will have quite a nice team if they get some pitchers."

This is a sure fire answer because it indicates that the speak.

This is a sure fire answer because it indicates that the speaker knows the club needs some pitchers. It is a very safe answer because if a club does not get the pitchers it will not go anywhere at all, except downward.

This seemed to satisfy the fellow with soup on his thumb and so when I got over and was buzzing Charley Moore, the new Cracker manager, I asked him, "What sort of a ball club do you think you will have Charley?' And he is in the trade and so he said, "I think we will have quite a nice ball club if we get the pitching. And so there we were, starting from scratch.

It seems that this fellow Franklin D. Roosevelt started something when he started talking about a new deal. The poker players, of course, have been calling for new deals for years but never before has the phrase become so general. There are new deals everywherein shirt sales-in prices and in most everything.

And I gathered that the Cracker officials are going in for new deal for the fans. There will be a few fellows named Joe brought back from last year's club. But some of them will be used in trades before the season starts. It would not be at all points. surprising to see the team start with no more than three or four Charley Moore's record has been mentioned before but one point of it may not have been emphasized enough. He took a team in the Sally league and won one-half of a pennant, losing in the play-off. Charley Moore is a smart fellow with the pitchers. He w good catcher himself-still is. And he knows how to hand batteries. He brings along a lot of first-class skill and exper ence plus an ability to impart some of his drive to his team.

And this explains why he is sweeping the boards pretty clean.

"I want fellows I know about personally," he said.

The fans will like Charley Moore. If he can just have a good opening and boot his club out in front at the start I think he will hold the boys there.

TECH'S GREAT GOLF TEAM.

It is to be hoped that the Georgia Tech golf team will be sent to the national intercollegiates in June. The decision of Tech officials on Wednesday to send at least the low-score man of the team, Charley Yates, is commendable.

It is barely possible that the remainder of the team will get to go. Rarely has any college had such a golf team. Berrien Moore Jr., is only a stroke or so behind Yates. He won from Yates in the Tate Mountain invitation tournament last summer. His game has been rebuilt and it is just now coming back again. George Harris is another who is but a stroke or so behind Yates. Charles Dannals Jr. is still another. They are all Atlanta boys.

The two Ridleys, John and Frank, are the LaGrange members, and Keen, a Florida star, is still another. These are the leaders. There are other good golfers at Tech.

Yates, of course, is the south's outstanding young player. He was one of 10 youngsters to qualify in the national amateur last summer.

This team should go far in the national intercollegiates. And Tech, of course, will make every effort to send them, despite the drastic curtailment of minor sports because of lack of funds. Swamps Auburn.

Entire Tech Golf Team May Be Sent to Meet

Georgia Tech athletic officials are making plans which, if they materialize, will see the complete Georgia Tech golf team participating in the national intercollegiates at Buffalo the week of June 26.

As announced in The Constitution of yesterday Charlie Yates, state champion, will be sent to the tournament by Tech. Yates had previously announced his hopes of attending but Tech did not give permission until two days ago.

"It is by no means sure that we will be able to send the entire team although we hope to," said an official of the athletic association yesterday. "We feel that we have an excellent chance to win we will try to send the entire team. At any rate we are glad

Something new in the form of a handicap match is being offered Atlanua wrestling fans on Henry Weber's card at the auditorium next Tuesday night, and the innovation is already drawing plenty of attention. Jim McMillen, former Illimois football star and now regarded as the No. 3 man in America's wrestling industry, has agreed to toss Jack Zarnos, tough Oho Greek, twice within 90 minutes or forfeit the match.

McMillen, due to his pleasing personality and spectacular tactics on the mat, is a prime favorite here. He has yet to suffer defeat, his closest call having been a one-hour draw with Jim Clinkstock last summer. As a matter of fact, the Illinois Express has seldom been beaten anywhere during the past two years, and ranks with Pete Sauer as one of the two strongest challengers for the title held by agile Jimmy Londos.

A hue and cry for Zarnos' scalp went up from the fans when the Greek kneed and slugged his way to a draw with Paul Harper, the debonair Texan, in the semi-final to the Daviscourt-Jennings bout last Tuesday. Zarnos had the house in an uproar from start to finish with his dirty work, and, when Harper managed to even the match with a hook scissors just as the time limit was expiring, the delight of the customers knew no bounds.

Pat O'Shocker, another prize graduate from the school of mat villains, returns here in the semi-windup, one-hour limit, to oppose Whitey Hewitt, 225-pound Canadian star. O'Shocker's matches are always full of action and this should prove no exception.

30 points between them that night.

Coach Roy Mundorff has been doing some hard work on his Tech quintet with a view of getting it ready for the campaign within the state and chances are the Jackets will be a greatly improved five tonight. The trip through Tennessee did the team considerable good as it was badly in need of games. Tech defeated Sewanee. 38-32, and bowed to Vanderbilt, 38-27, on that trip. This compares somewhat with Mercer's record, the Bears having beaten Sewanee. 39-27, and lost their other starts against Tennessee opposition.

Officials Deem Certain Agreements as Unfair to Minor Clubs.

Directors of the Atlanta baseball minor league agreements on ball players as sent out by Judge W. G. Bramham, chairman of the National Association of Professional Baseball

They deemed certain clauses whereby major clubs would be able to con-trol ball players on minor league clubs as unfair. Following is the text of a telegram sent to President John D. Martin, president of the Southern league.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 20, 1932.

Referring to proposed amendments sent out by Judge William G. Bramham on date of December 26, 1932, two of our directors in session this morning instructed me to vote against each and every one of the proposed amendments stop of course we are not wiring Judge Bramham direct knowing that you will notify him:

Signed) COL. T. L. HUSTON. Through these amendments, major league clubs would gain complete con-

Charley Moore, the club manager, announced two new rookies who would be brought to the spring training camp at Mobile. Ala. These are John Posewisz, outfielder who played for Mobile in the Southeastern last year, and Joe Neisler, a young catcher, recommended by Joe Guyon, former Tech football star, who had the youngster at Asheville last year.

Nothing was heard last night on the prospective deal for Joe Bonowitz. Chattenooga outfielder. Robinson had ainput with Moore's ability on developing pitchers.

"No big league club will be afraid to send young pitchers to Charley Moore for they know they'll be in good hands," Robinson added. He pointed out that Moore was a veteran catcher himself and that he knew the duties of a battery uside and out. He majors and Class AA during his three-than the prospective deal for Joe Bonowitz.

Chattanooga Favors Cummings in Deal.

That the Chattanooga baseball club would be willing to take Johany Cummings, young Cracker outfielder, on either a deal for Joe Bonowitz or a pitcher was learned yesterday on advices from Chattanoga, following ne-gotiations between the two clubs.

Cummings acompanied Bert Nie-hoff and the Chattanoga cab on the barnstorming trip through Mexico at the close of the season and hit well in all the games. Niehoff has liked him since that time and in the event a trade is effected between the two teams it would not be at all surprisig to see Cummings sockout uniform next seasen.
Officials of the Atlanta club had ing to see Cummings wearing the not heard from a message sent to Joe Engel regarding Bonowitz yesterday.

CRACKER HEADS Robby Praises Moore As Ace With Pitchers

Says He's a Real Fighting Manager, Too; Recalls Days With McGraw and Orioles.

By Jimmy Jones.

Take it from your Uncle Robby, Charley Moore is going to be a mighty good hand at handling the pitchers who come to perform under the banner of the Atlanta Crackers during 1933.

Since the better part of Wilbert Robinson's 50-odd years in baseball were spent behind a catcher's mask, on the coaching lines and in the manager's chair, he should be immensely weil qualified to speak on the subject of handling nitchers.

house to task today for blocking his government reorganization program without even reading it and to its leaders' claims that his budget estimates for supply bills had been reduced replied that they actually had

"The estimates which I gave in my recent message to congress as to the probable size of the deficit will depend, of course, upon how far the congress adopts economies which I have recommended," Mr. Hoover said.

"The budget calls for $850,000,000 aduation in appropriation for the reduction in appropriations for the next fiscal year, which would result in a reduction of about $530,000,000 of expenditures, the difference being due to old continuing appropriations and commitments in respect to them."

Taking issue with the statements of Representative Byrns, of Tennessee, chairman of the house appropriation committee, that the five appro-priation bills dealt with thus far showed a reduction, President Hoo-ver said that actually they "showed an actual increase of about $35,000,000 instead of a decrease."

His recommendations, he said, were based on the report of the non-partisan joint committee on reorganization of the government which existed in 1920 and that for 25 years similar proposals had been sponsored various administrations.

Kreuger Bondholders

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(P)—
Holders of secured debentures of Kreuger & Toll, estimated between 20,000 and 25,000, were advised today by E. W. Debevoise, counsel for the trustee in bankruptcy, to file proofs of claim before February 6 if they wish to protect their interests.

At a hearing before Federal Referee Henry K. Davis, Debevoise said the trustee intends to test the validity of a blanket claim which he said he had been advised the Marine Midland Trust Company of New York, sucto file.

The blanket claim, to be filed on behalf of the bondholders would amount to approximately $18,000,000, he said.

"Congorilla" To Start

Rialto Showing Today

"Congorilla" undoubtedly the most thrilling and entertaining film record of explorations in the heart of darkest Africa, will open a three-day run at the Riaso theater this morning. This is the first talking picture ever made in Africa and was produced by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson during a two-year safari they took through the untrodden realms of the rhino, the lion, the elephant, the hippo, the giant gorilla and the pigmy.

"Why should I concern myself about the plight of the Railroads? The government will have to take them over—they ought to do it."

Astounding as it is, that argument is being advanced today—and, recently on the floor of the Senate, a leading United States Senator predicted that government ownership of Railways is certain!

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP? -- GOV-ERNMENT OPERATION OF RAILROADS? -HEAVEN HELP THE COMMON-WEALTH!

Wasn't it Patrick Henry who said-"The only way we can judge the future is by the past"? Well-here's SOME PAST by which you can judge government ownership of Railroads!

The government operated the Railroads of this country once. From January, 1918, until March, 1920, the entire operation of ALL the Railroads was under the direction of GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS. And—at a time when traffic was at its very peakwhen it wasn't a question of getting business, but only of handling it-when there was practically no unfair competition, such as exists today, from subsidized waterway and untaxed, unregulated, Motor transportation-THE GOVERNMENT SHOWED A NET RAIL-ROAD OPERATING DEFICIT OF TWO BIL-LION DOLLARS!

Think of it! A LOSS OF TWO THOU-SAND MILLION DOLLARS OF THE PEO-PLE'S MONEY in a little more than two years' time of Railroad operation by the government!

That's something to MAKE YOU THINK, isn't it?

BUT THAT ISN'T ALL! A billion dollars a year isn't all you'll pay if, THROUGH NON-SUPPORT OF THE RAILROADS, you force the government to take them over.

We can't simply seize this property. YOU—THE TAXPAYERS—WOULD HAVE TO PURCHASE IT! Condemnation proceedings would occur, and a fair valuation of the properties set up. Experts declare that the LOWEST POSSIBLE VALUATION OF OUR RAILROADS IS TWENTY-FIVE BIL-LION DOLLARS!

So, that's what YOU would have to pay for the Railroads whether you had already advanced some of the money in loanswhether you paid cash outright for the property or whether you guaranteed interest on the investment. TAXPAYERS WOULD HAVE TO INVEST TWENTY-FIVE BILLION DOLLARS in Railroads if we forced the government to take them over.

BUT, THAT ISN'T ALL, YET!

What about the MILLION DOLLARS A DAY IN TAXES THAT THE RAILROADS NOW PAY? The government doesn't pay any taxes. YOU would have to make that up, also. THREE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FIVE MILLION DOLLARS A YEAR MORE IN TAXES FOR YOU TO PAY!

And what would be the condition and the future of Railway Employes? Just visualize ONE AND A HALF MILLION RAIL-ROAD PEOPLE UNDER POLITICAL AP-POINTEES AND POLITICAL BUREAUS.

POLITICIANS AT THE THROTTLE! RED TAPE! LOG ROLLING! INDIFFER-ENT SERVICE AT A STAGGERING COST!

Add it ALL up—Think of the COST TO YOU of government ownership and operation of Railroads. Think of all this tremendous added load piled onto YOUR back that is already strained almost to the breaking point in TAXES!

But it is NOT going to happen! We've learned too much recently about the TRUTH OF THE RAILROAD SITUATION. We know that private ownership under FAIR competitive conditions means OUR OWN security and happiness. WE ARE GOING TO IN-SURE THAT SECURITY! We are going to see that the Railroads get FAIR treatment.

WE ARE GOING TO PATRONIZE THE RAILROADS AS WE DID IN HAPPIER DAYS! We are going to destroy this menace of government ownership!

Clearly, there was no use arguing with him. Yet she was afraid to let him go on this mission, afraid for what he might do in a mad moment when he first encountered Ramon.

They sat talking for a long time, reviewing all the details of the case. No checks against Kay's account had come through the bank. The last one drawn had been December 29. Since then her quarterly income had been paid into her account. Knowing her love of money, this had an unfavorable portent.

But, June declared, there was the $25,000. If she had that, it would last a long time. Bruce was certain she had sent it to Ramon to finance whatever project he had in mind, and he meant to find out.

"Yes, I'll come," she said, and went to get a wrap.

Driving to the pier, Bruce clung to June's hands as if he were loath to let her go. Yet she felt miles away from him, had a horrible feeling that she represented to him merely a human tic—perhaps the only one he had! But before he left her he stopped and kissed her with a fervor that belied all her fears.

"Take care of yourself, darling," he admonished. She watched his tall figure disappear through the door, his overcoat collar turned up, his felt hat pulled down over his face to escape recognition.

South 1♠ 2♥ 3♠ 4♥ 4♠(2) Pass Pass Pass Pass Pass 1—North lacks adequate trump sup-port. However, in view of his 2 honor-tricks and the doubleton heart, he chooses to give his part-ner an immediate Raise.

This bid looks to North as though it should be a small sacrifice, at the worst, in view of which it should be worthwhile, as the opponents seem to have a lay-down vulnerable game.

On this hand West chose to open the Queen of diamonds, which East overtook with the Ace and then continued with the Knave of diamonds. Mr. Moorehead, who was playing the hand, took the trick with the diamond

A low club was immediately led and taken with the King in Dummy, and then the 4 of spades was led from Dummy. East ducked, playing the 10-spot, and Declarer's Queen held the trick. At this point Mr. Moorehead made the master play. Instead of immediately returning to Dummy with a club and leading up to the spades again, he led the Ten of hearts out of his hand, a trick he knew must be lost anyway. Whether East or West took the heart trick was immaterial. East and West's cause was now completely lost, as, no matter what was rethe heart trick was immaterial. East and West's cause was now completely lost, as, no matter what was returned, Declarer was able to get to Dummy again with clubs and then lead through East's spades. The last trump was drawn, and Declarer took the rest of the tricks with trumps and high clubs.

Note what would have happened if the Declarer had not had the acumen to give up his heart trick immediately. After his Queen of spades held the first round of the suit, let us assume that Declarer immediately returned to Dummy with a second round of clubs. On the second spade lead, East would have heen a simple matter for him to put his partner in with the heart King. Then West would have led the third round of clubs, which East could have ruffed for the setting trick. South's very simple extra precaution in immediately leading out the losing heart forestalled any of these moves, and, as a result, the Declarer was rewarded by a doubled game contract. FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER,
CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—A strong stock market and a sharp upturn in corn offset effects of reactionary trend in Liverpool and Buenos Aires in early training and wheat prices at one time were up in the offers. Profit-taking and later liquidation by local holders proved too heavy a load and near the close prices were slightly under yesterday's finish. There was no rain in the southwest and not much chance of any indicated in the forecast which was for part cloudy to unsettled. The drifting character of the market is discouraging to holders but we continue to favor accumulation at this level.

CHICAGO. Jan. 20.—An opening raily was checked by free selling from overnight longs and some realizing sales from recent buyers and by holders of daily offers. The weakness in Winnipeg was attributed to the selling from overnight longs and some realizing sales from recent pulpers and by holders of daily offers. The weakness in Winnipeg was attributed to a comment to maintain the gold standard which is, of course, a check on inflationary measures and brought out some liquidation for the account of speculators who had based wheat purchases on hopes of inflationary legislating trade interests are bullish. late today, and prices advances made earlier failed to hold.

"Spread" dealings in wheat, sales here against purchases at Kansas City, were largely responsible for Chicago market setbacks. Houses with connections in southwest led the selling movement in Chicago. Weakness of the Winnipeg wheat market was also an unsettling factor.

Wheat in Chicago closed unsteady. 1-8 to 3-8 under yesterday's finish.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(P)—The bond market apparently felt better today, but prices, as a whole, were unable to retain early gains and drifted back to around their starting point.

The Associated Press-Standard Statistics average for 60 domestic corporate loans closed unchanged. Further activity in the United States government group, however, raised aggregate sales to $12,802,000, par value. The turnover of government bonds alone was more than $3,500,000.

alone was more than $3,500,000.

Most of the federals finished at their top levels of the day, with gains ranging from 2-32nds to 19-32nds of a point. Liberty 3 1-2s reached a new 1932-33 high and treasury 3 1-8s were the heaviest traded. Continued strength of both Liberties and the treasuries was attributed partly to the belief that Washington's plans for near-by refinancing will involve only near-by refinancing will involve only short-term issues.

The most active rail gainers included some liens of Sauta Fe, Baltimore & Ohio, Burlington, New York Central, Reading, Texas & Pacific and Union Pacific. Southern Railway issues were heavy and a number of others drifted irregularly lower.

In the foreign list the Germans had their ups and downs, but most of them managed to hold their gains. of them managed to hold their gains of 1 or more points. Loans of Belgium, Austria, Hungary, Helsingfors, Norway and Uruguay firmed.

BIG TENNESSEE BANK FAILS TO OPEN DOORS

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 20.—(P)
The affairs of the East Tennessee National bank, Knoxville's largest banking institution, had been placed in the hands of the comptroller of the currency today.

hands of the comptroller of the currency today.

A statement of the bank, issued as of December 31, 1932, showed stotal deposits of $9.992,354.64. A statement issued December 31, 1930, following consolidation of the East Tennessee National with the City National bank, showed deposits at that time of $25,-128.039.67.

The comptroller of the currency in showed deposits at that time of $25,128.039.67.

The comptroller of the currency in Washington appointed J. M. Riley as receiver of the bank. Riley is connected with the comptroller's office.
A bank official said the bank owed the Reconstruction Finance Corporation around $8,000,000.
The bank had $1,800,000 in secured deposits, these belonging to the state of Tennessee, United States government and the Philippine islands. The individual amounts were not revealed.
The City Bank of Fountain City, a suburb of Knoxville, was closed today by order of the directors, but Richard Hale, cashier, said the bank would reopen in a few days.
"We believed it best for the interest of depositors to close the bank for a short time," he said. The bank has deposits of $86,000.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 20.—(P)—Southern California's general rainstorm passed into its second day with-out the violence which accompanied out the violence which accompanied the downpour yesterday.

Gentle rains fell over most of the southland, with added snow in the mountains. The gaie-like winds which swept the coast line yesterday had died down to a breeze, altrough the ocean was rough.
Motorists marconed in the Cajon pass, northwest of San Bernardino, by a heavy snowfall, were freed this morning when highway allows cut a morning when highway plows cut a the five-foot drifts.

Along the coastline at San Pedro the storm had washed three barges and one motorboat aground. No one was injured.

There was a slight rain in the normally dry Imperial valley, but no damage to crops was reported.

In Glendale and Los Angeles evidence of the violence of the storm was spread throughout the cities. Trees were levelled, some streets still were flooded and hundreds of sign-boards were smashed.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(P)—Production figures forwarded today by the Association of Life Insurance Presidents, representing 44 American life insurance companies, to the United States department of com-merce disclosed that 17.9 per cent less new insurance was purchased in 1932 than in 1931.

The report showed that new business of the companies in 1932 totaled $9,104,425,000 against $11,085,003,000 in 1931. Industrial insurance amounted to $2,477,267,000 against $2,797,16.,000, off 11.4 per cent; group insurance, $627,141,000 against $796.164,000, off 21.2 per cent, and new ordinary insurance, $6,000,017,000 against $7,491,674,000, a decrease of 19.9 per cent.

The companies represented have $1

ARE LOST IN ALPS PARIS. Jan. 20.—(P)—Two more of the British empire's prominent fliers. Captain W. L. "Wally" Hope and Lieutenant Hinley, of the British air force, were missing today in the Alps where Bert Hinkler was believed lost 13 days ago.

The disappearance of Captain Hope and his observer, Hinley, served as a depressing anti?climax to the thrilling rescue yesterday of Lady Mary Bailey, found in French West Africa suffering greatly from thirst after facing the terrors of the desert four days.

Auto Truck for Sale 11A

Even the Oriental odors and squalor were welcome relief after the drab monotony of the Black Sea relief after the drab monotony of the Black Sea country. There, for the last ten months, he had been in charge of engineers drilling for oil under contract with the soviet states.

Today chance led him into a congested quarter where few foreigners penetrate. Lingering in a native shop, leisurely sipping syrupy black coffee, his attention was caught by the nearing shouts of dragomen and the musical tinkle of camel bells.

Soon a travel-worn caravan rounded the corner. "Come from Turkestan—ver' far," volunteered his native boy. "Bring much richee-jade, carpretty girls!" pets, monkeys-maybe pre laughed at the last suggestion.

Trouble-Shooter Finds Trouble and Loses $5

R. D. Matthews is a trouble-shooter for the Georgia Power Comsnooter for the Georgia Fower Com-pany with headquarters at 211 De-catur street. Friday morning he had a "trouble call" to Johnston and Rock Spring roads. With a crew of workmen, he answered it. While they were cleaning up the job. Matthews sat on the trouble job, Matthews sat on the trouble truck counting his money—in a roll of bills. A sypsy woman came along and asked him the way to town. Matthews told ber. He counted his money again. He told police a $5 bill was missing.

U.S. REGULATION ASKED FOR WATER CARRIERS will pe

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(A)—Federal regulation of water carriers, and repeal of the provisions prohibiting railroads from engaging in water transportation, were recommended as a base for a new transportation policy to lighten the burdens of railroads by Milton W. Harrison, president of the Security Owners' Association, speaking before the New York Railroad Club tonight.

"The ideal form of competition," he said, "is not a competition between different agencies of transportation, but a competition between strong national transportation systems embracing all agencies. The railroads should not only be permitted to go into water and other fields of transportation, suplementing the services of their own but should be forced to do so."

Boykin Libel Action Answered by McRae

W. G. McRae, defeated candidate W. G. McRae, defeated candidate for solicitor-general, Friday filed an answer to Solicitor-General John A. Boykin's counter libel action for $300,000 damages. The answer was filed in city court of Atlanta, where McRae is suing Boykin for $100,000. In his answer, Boykin filed a crossbill seeking $300,000 damages. Both actions are based on alleged libelous utterances of the candidates during the campaign. In his answer filed Friday McRae denies that ae accused Boykin of lobbying in the legislature but that he stated Boykin had written a letter to a judge seeking to get him a letter to a judge seeking to get him to lobby.

McRae said that the charge of extortion which he hurled at Boykin is true. He sets out further that other remarks made by himself were privated by himself were privated by himself. Rev. Mr. Sanford was born near Huntsville, Ala., and lived in Atlanta 10 years. He suggested to his company's directors last year that it might be well to move its general offices from Chicago to Atlanta, in the center of the fertilizer trading area. Of the company's business, 68 per cent was done in the south, he said.

"I then suggested the move to the officers, offering as suggestions New York, Baltimore and Atlanta," Mr. Sanford said. "They all voted for Atlanta.
